

Giuseppe Acquaro

Terminali Italia CEO since 2018

With a degree in Electronic Engineering, he held the position of Network Safety and Quality Director at RFI, also obtaining for the Italian railway network the Safety Authorisation issued by ANSF pursuant to Article 15 of Legislative Decree 162/2007, the ISO 14001:2005 Environmental Certification, and the Safety Authorisation issued by the French National Safety Authority ESPS. In addition to the many publications on safety, he has several books published including “Railway Safety” and “Safety Management Systems in Rail Transport”.

He is currently a Member of the Interim Governance Board of the European Rail Facilities Portal in the European Commission's Directorate General for Mobility and Transport and of the Freight Leader Council Management Committee.